

Greenfield and Hurst Drive Federation School Offer

Universal Provision

Cognition and Learning

Broad, balanced and varied curriculum
 High-quality teaching that is differentiated and personalised
 Displays supporting learning
 Instructions broken down/chunked
 Additional processing/thinking time
 Warnings and countdowns/timers
 Pre-teaching/ Reteaching sessions
 Visual Aids
 Use of ICT
 Practical maths resources/manipulatives

Communication and Interaction

Visual timetable
 Now and next boards
 Well organised and calm environments
 Small group/partner work
 Warnings/countdowns for transitions

Sensory and Physical Needs

Specific/planned seating in classrooms
 Fidget resources agreed by home and teachers
 Wobble cushions
 Enlarged font/worksheets
 Ear Defenders
 Individual workstations
 Movement breaks
 Multi-sensory approach to learning
 Range of equipment and opportunities for balancing, exploring etc.

Social, Emotional and Mental Health

Clear expectations which are communicated to pupils
 Calm areas in the classroom
 Zones of Regulation displayed and used in classrooms
 Consistent use of praise and reward systems
 Strong focus on the importance of positive relationships

Targeted Provision

Cognition and Learning

Focus Teacher groups/ teaching
Own working space
Writing cues/prompts
Pre-teaching/re-teaching
Learning interventions (e.g. Phonics, SPaG, Reading, Maths)
M-Scale Assessments

Communication and Interaction

Personal visual timetable
Now and next boards
Lego therapy
Augmentative Alternative Communication (AAC) e.g. communication boards, iPad apps (Grid player), Makaton

Sensory and Physical Needs

Leaving class a few minutes early to avoid busy corridors
Movement or brain breaks
Adapted/own resources, such as enlarged font
Access to sensory room

Social, Emotional and Mental Health

Social stories
Behaviour charts
Friendship group interventions
Nurture

Specialist Provision

Some examples of Specialist provision are:

- SEND Support plans
- Speech and Language Therapy (In house - Magic Words, or NHS)
- Personalised Behaviour plans
- Action Plans
- Personalised Risk assessments
- 1:1 support
- Access to Internal Alternative Provision (Investigators, Birch Class)